FILING A COMPLAINT

If you believe you are a victim of discrimination you may, within one year of the discrimination, file a complaint of discrimination with the Department of Fair Employment and Housing by following these steps:

- ① Contact DFEH by using the information at the bottom of this flyer
- ② Be prepared to present specific facts about the alleged discrimination or harassment
- ③ Provide copies of documents that support the charges in the complaint
- ④ Keep records and documents about the incident(s), such as rent receipts, applications, and other potential proof of discrimination

DFEH will conduct an impartial investigation. We represent the State of California. DFEH will, if possible, try to assist both parties to resolve the complaint.

If a voluntary settlement cannot be reached, and there is sufficient evidence to establish a violation of the law, DFEH may issue a civil complaint and litigate the case in state or federal court.

If a court decides in favor of the complaining party, remedies may include making available previously denied housing, compensation for losses and emotional distress, training and policy changes to prevent future discrimination, and other actions to eliminate the effects of discrimination.
